

Managing with I-Ching

Managing I-Ching has been known to be the most important book in the Chinese Culture. However, I-Ching was written many years ago and was primarily used in religious-related activities, some modification and reorganization are required so that it can be better used in modern time. This course let you grasp the essence of I-Ching in today's business activities

Objectives

- This workshop focuses on the management wisdom of I-Ching and through the application of I-Ching, one can be more competent in understanding the thinking and behavior of the colleagues in the working environment

Target Audience

- Top management person who are driving the Management with I-Ching
- Quality personnel, managers, educators and consultants who are entrusted to Implement or develop the Managing with I-Ching

Details

- Find new directions in management in modern business environment
- Learn how to apply I-Ching in solving problems
- Learn how to thinking system about Making with I-Ching
- Identify with the knowledge, skills and appropriate leadership with I-Ching
- Be able to grasp the essence of I-Ching in business activities

Methodology

- Presentation and experience sharing

Venue

- ACI training centre