FEHD survey on Public Knowledge, Attitude and Practice regarding Food Safety and nutrition Labeling

In 2008, Accredited Certification International Ltd (ACI) was honored to be appointed by the Food and Environmental Hygiene Department (FEHD) to gauge opinion and assess the knowledge, attitude and practice of the general public regarding food safety and nutrition labeling. It is our honor to gain the full trust from the FEHD to carry out the survey.

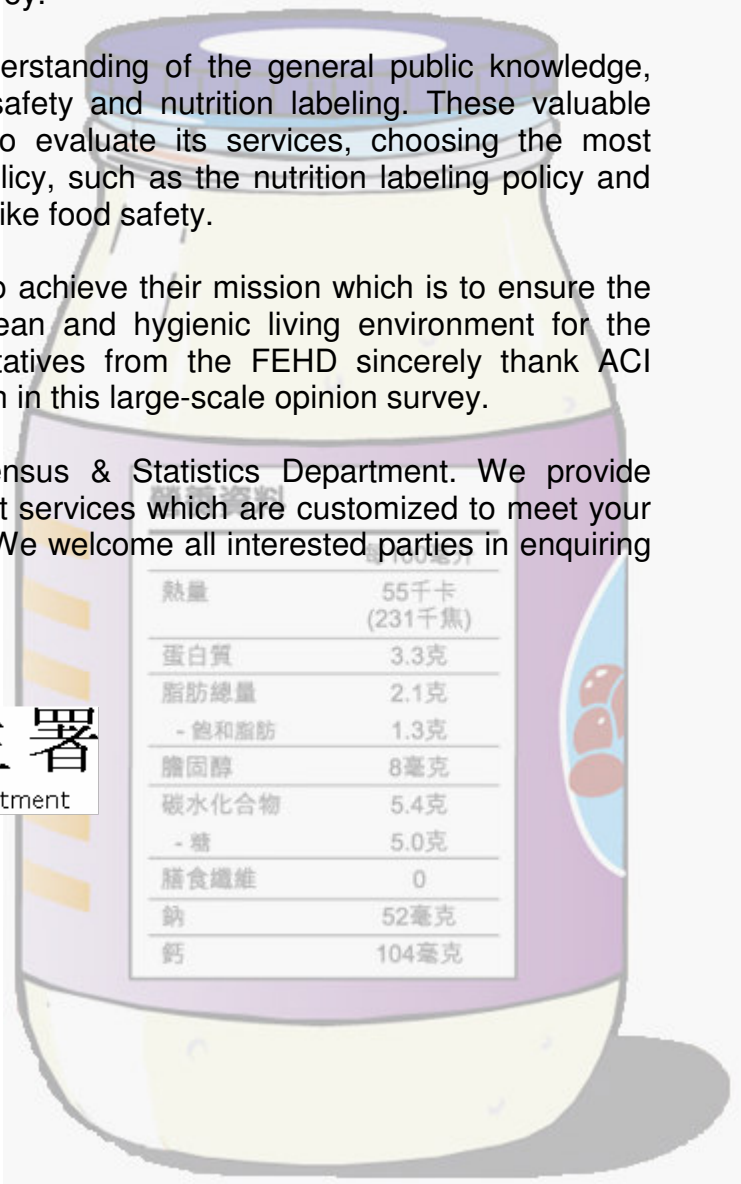

The study enhances a better understanding of the general public knowledge, attitude and behavior over food safety and nutrition labeling.
